

TrinEDI™ Payments

Electronic Remittance Advice (ERA)

The manual remittance process of reconciling bank statements with remittance files is a labor intensive and confusing task. Additionally, more payers are requiring acceptance of electronic remittance to do business. It should be an easy switch to electronic processing, but perceived differences in payer formats can be costly to implement and maintain.

TrinEDI™ Payments

Receive Electronic Remittance Advice (ERA) files so that you can have instant access to your important payment information. TrinEDI™ Payments provides:
